ORDERING MATERIALS TO HELP PROMOTE YOUR EVENT

Macmillan has a number of materials that can be ordered to help you decorate and advertise your fundraising event. These are provided in packs that are suitable for either small or larger scale events. Although these items will be provided to you free of charge there are costs involved for Macmillan so please think carefully before ordering and only order what you need. If you are organising a particularly large scale event please contact the team on 020 7840 7875.
