

Macmillan-Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust Partnership Launch Event

Supporting you through your cancer care – the story so far and our next steps

1 October 2015, 17.45 – 20.30
W12 Conference Centre, Hammersmith Hospital

Time	Topic	Lead
17.45 – 18.00	Guest arrival	Debbie Arney / Jo Saunders
18.00 – 18.15	Corporate welcome	Dr Tracey Batten (Chief Executive, ICHT) and Juliet Bouverie (Director, Services and Influencing, Macmillan Cancer Support)
18.15 – 18.30	Session 1: What has been achieved in the partnership so far Hear how working together is enabling us to redesign and improve services across the whole cancer pathway; plus establish stronger ways of working to support the individual needs of each patient who is being cared for at Imperial.	Gareth Gwynn (Head of Cancer Performance and Improvement) and Sarah Gigg (Senior Macmillan Development Manager)
18.30 – 18.50	Session 2: Our new story – Patients, Navigators and Clinical Nurse Specialists	Di Dunn (Trust Lead Cancer Nurse)
18.50 – 19.00	Session 3: Where next? Introduction to next half of evening Living With and Beyond Cancer (LWBC)	Dr Katie Urch (Trust Lead for Cancer, Chief of Service Oncology and Palliative Care)
19.00-19.45	Breakout session Join us for a work shop to help us shape the future stages of the programme – working together to integrate acute and primary care for cancer patients, to improve patient experience. Four facilitated group discussions based on the questions above	Facilitator
19.45 -20.25	Feedback and open discussion on breakout session	Facilitator
20.25-20.30	Summary and close	Steve McManus (Chief Operating Officer, ICHT) and Dr Fran Woodard (Director for England, Policy and Research, Macmillan Cancer Support)