

Henry Garnett Award

Nomination guidance

Henry Garnett Award criteria

Henry Garnett Awards recognise the exceptional contribution inspirational professionals make in directly working with Macmillan beyond their core professional role. For example, their work in promoting and supporting Macmillan through media work, fundraising, policy development and educating across networks.

The professional must:

- have worked beyond their core role to promote and support Macmillan, equating to for a minimum of four days over a year
- act as an ambassador for Macmillan and raise Macmillan's profile within their community
- inspire and support their peers and colleagues
- be recognised by other stakeholders as an inspirational person, particularly by people affected by cancer and by partner organisations

Awards will be presented locally by Service Development teams.

Questions and nomination guidance

For questions 1 and 2 – 4 the maximum number of characters with spacing is 1900 and 1600, respectively.

1. Outline the specific contribution, initiative or achievement in relation to the Henry Garnett award criteria.

- Consider the discretionary effort sections of the professional commitment when developing your answer. Please note this is not an exclusive list and include other contributions the individual has made. Include information on how much time this has involved over the period covered.

2. Provide evidence of how the nominee has gone beyond what would normally be expected in their role and enhanced or contributed to the work / objectives of Macmillan?

- Consider the individual's role and show how their contribution has gone beyond this. Demonstrate what they have achieved that has supported Macmillan's work.

3. Provide evidence of how the nominee has acted as an ambassador for Macmillan and has raised Macmillan's profile within their community.

- Demonstrate the impact the individual has had locally and/or nationally. Give specific examples on this where possible.

4. Provide evidence of how the nominee is recognised by other stakeholders as an inspirational person, particularly by people affected by cancer and partner organisations.

- Identify the key stakeholders where possible and include quotes if available. Cover the full range of stakeholders.