A VERY EXTRAORDINARY INNOVATION DAY

Saturday 19 March
Impact Hub Westminster,
London

A very extraordinary innovation day is your chance to create brand new ideas to help Macmillan raise much needed money to support people with cancer.

The challenge

How can we give women in their 30s a fun, extraordinary way to break the monotony of everyday life, while raising money for Macmillan?

Who we're looking for

Social, creative and tech entrepreneurs to help crack the challenge!

Why should you take part?

- Be part of an exciting, innovative design sprint, creating and validating brand new ideas in just a day
- Connect with other social and creative entrepreneurs and find out more about working with charities
- Use your skills and expertise to benefit the UK's best loved charity
- Opportunity to take part in skills sharing workshops with Macmillan partners
- Macmillan goodie bags for all attendees
- Free flow of cakes and drinks all day
- Inspiring location – IMPACT HUB Westminster, London, SW1Y 4TE
