The difference your support can make

Cancer affects us all. Every fortnight 155 people in Derbyshire will be told they have cancer and one in three of us will get cancer at some point in our lives. Macmillan aims to be there for patients and their families and carers throughout their cancer experience, helping to make life easier through medical, emotional, financial, and practical support

£100s could pay for...

£100 A Macmillan Grant that buys fresh bedding for a person with cancer, who is dealing with nausea, night sweats and incontinence because of their treatment

£400 Could enable a Macmillan professional to buy a specialist piece of equipment such a recliner chair or a scalp cooler to make things easier for their patients

£600 Spent on a face-to-face benefits adviser helps people affected by cancer claim £8,400 in benefits they are entitled to

£800 Could pay for a rehabilitation support team of 5 professionals to provide a range of support including physiotherapy and advice on diet

£1,000s could pay for...

£1,000 A Macmillan nurse for a week (including all costs), helping people living with cancer and their families receive essential advice and support

£2,000 Help run a small information and support centre for over a week

£5,000 Could fund our phone service for half a day and allow our cancer support specialists to answer around 200 calls and emails from people who want questions answered, need practical or financial support, or just want to chat

BIG YEAR, MASSIVE DIFFERENCE
