WHO ARE WE?

We are the Breast Way Round - a Macmillan Cancer Support fundraising group helping to raise funds for people affected by cancer

We hold a sponsored motorcycle run for ladies around the West Coast of Scotland and participate in many fundraising initiatives and collections throughout the Motorcycling community. From stands at the MCN, to rides and collections at Knockhill we are there in our pink vests and pink Mohicans raising donations!

The Breast Way Round started as a ride in memory of a best friend who passed away despite a fighting spirit. With the first ride in 2008 having 65 participants it has grown and grown to raise over £110,000 in the past 3 years for Macmillan. The Breast Way Round has touched the lives of many people and made an unbelievable difference to people affected by cancer.

We finish our spectacular journey in George Square with a large finale event with a real festival atmosphere including bands, companies and lots of friends and family!

MACMILLAN CANCER SUPPORT

Macmillan are here to improve the lives of everyone affected by cancer - people who have cancer, their carers, families and friends. There are 2 million people living in the UK with cancer and one in three of us will receive a cancer diagnosis in our lifetime.

As more people are living with cancer every day, our work is needed more than ever. Macmillan provides support to people affected by cancer, from financial and emotional help to medical care and practical support.

Macmillan replies 97% on donations that's why we are asking you to get involved to help support the event in anyway you can!

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

You can help in many different ways and every contribution really helps!

Make a donation to support our event
Take part in our event

Sponsor part of our event
Donate a raffle or auction prize

You can have so much fun getting involved and making a difference to people affected by cancer in your community.....the list of possibilities is endless!
