FLAVOURS OF HEREFORDSHIRE FOOD FESTIVAL

The Flavours of Herefordshire Food Festival takes place on the 24th and 25th of October at Hereford Racecourse. Meet this year's celebrity, Gino D'Acampo, and over 70 independent food & drink producers in the Food Pavilion who rear, grow or make food with taste. Browse the Farmers' Market. Look in on the Cooking and Competitions in the Food Theatre, not to mention tastings and talks in The Cider Press. Lots of fun for children and the young at heart. Macmillan in Herefordshire

Macmillan in Herefordshire needs hundreds of thousands of pounds this year to continue to help improve the lives of people living with cancer. We cannot do it without your help.

Macmillan's ambition is to help everyone affected by cancer with the medical, emotional, practical and financial support they need. By simply supporting one of our public coffee mornings or getting together with friends and family over a cuppa, you will help us take a big step to reaching our ambition. That's because every penny you raise will fund more of our vital services and help to develop new ways to change lives.

And for that we think you should feel good.

Programme of Coffee Mornings in Herefordshire

In Herefordshire we like to go one better than to celebrate the World's Biggest Coffee Morning on just one day. Of course Herefordshire and Hospitality go hand in hand. To celebrate the amazing contribution made by all the county's Macmillan nurses, our supporters and fundraisers, the invitation is being extended across the whole week. Be sure to take a break during the week and enjoy some local flavours at one (or more!) of these venues open to the public. It's a great excuse to visit a new part of the county and to raise valuable funds to support people living with cancer in Herefordshire.
