Gower MacMarathon, 9 September 2017 - Terms and Conditions of Entry

This event is organised by the Swansea Committee [on behalf of Macmillan Cancer Support].

- For this Challenge we require a registration fee of £20 (non-refundable) which must be paid at the point of registration. In addition you must pledge to raise a minimum of £125 in sponsorship money for Macmillan Cancer Support which should be received by Macmillan Cancer Support within one month of the Challenge. All funds raised through the Challenge must be payable to Macmillan Cancer Support in £ sterling.

Medical Conditions

If you have suffered/are suffering from any medical condition (for example a heart condition, epilepsy) or are concerned about your health and fitness level, please seek advice from your General Practitioner and provide us with a doctor's certificate before taking part in the event.

By agreeing to the Terms and Conditions below, I acknowledge and agree to the following:

- I am at least 18 years of age (However, teenagers aged 14 and over can take part if they are accompanied by an adult and a parental consent form is completed. They will still need to pay the £20 registration fee and meet the minimum fundraising amount of £125).
- I pledge to raise at least £125 for Macmillan Cancer Support.
- If I am no longer able to take part in the event but have raised sponsorship money – this should be forwarded to Macmillan Cancer Support.
- I take part in this event at my own risk and understand the nature of the activity and the risks involved including possible injury to myself and/or damage to my property. It is my responsibility to ensure that I am insured if necessary and sufficiently fit to take part in this event and if I am in any doubt about this I will seek advice from my own General Practitioner before taking part in the event.
- I release Macmillan Cancer Support, its employees and volunteers from any liability for personal injury, death, loss, property, claim or damage suffered by me or any other person during or because of my participation in the event unless Macmillan Cancer Support, its employees or volunteers have caused the injury, death, loss, claim or damage because of their negligence.
- I have given Macmillan certain information, including medical information, about me and I consent to Macmillan using this data. I understand that it will be necessary for Macmillan to share the data with the Swansea committee and the medical staff to organise this event.

Data protection

- We do not sell or swap your details with any third parties, but to carry out our work we may need to pass your details to service companies authorised to act on our behalf.
- We will keep your details on our database so we can provide you with the best possible support every time you contact us.
- All participants, supporters and spectators, including friends and families who choose to attend the event confirm that they are happy for their names, video footage, photographs taken of them during the event to be used to publicise the event by Macmillan Cancer Support and its trading companies (Macmillan Cancer Support Trading Ltd and Macmillan Cancer Support Sales Ltd) for commercial and fundraising purposes including, but not limited to marketing material, television broadcasts, social media, advertising, publications, and other documents or mediums that may be made available to the public. Photographs of children will not be used in this manner without express written consent; unless the images are incidental, for example, children's images at the starting line. For further information about how we collect and use personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy.
- Macmillan Cancer Support would like to contact you (including by telephone) about our fundraising, campaigning and services for people affected by cancer. If you would prefer us not to use your details in this way please write to Macmillan Cancer Support, 89 Albert Embankment, London, SE1 7UQ, email or telephone us on contact@macmillan.org.uk, T: 0300 1000 200.
- If you would like to update your contact preferences, please call our Fundraising Support Centre on 0300 1000 200.

By submitting this form you consent to us using your details to provide you with information about the event you are entering.

There are many simple, inspiring and fun things we can do to make sure no one faces cancer alone. By submitting this form you consent to us further contacting you via email, text, phone and post with information about our services and other ways you can help, including ways to volunteer, take part in research, how you can donate to us and how you can get involved in our activities including fundraising, unless you tell us otherwise by ticking the boxes below.

We promise to always keep your details safe and we will never sell or swap your details. And if you change your mind about hearing from us, you can stop receiving our updates at any time by emailing contact@macmillan.org.uk or calling 0300 1000 200. Please see our Privacy Policy for more information.
