

YOUR SUPPORT MEANS ABSOLUTELY EVERYTHING

MACMILLAN
CANCER SUPPORT

CHRISTINA'S STORY

When she started treatment for breast cancer, Christina had to give up her job. The resulting drop in income, and extra costs caused by her cancer, hit Christina hard financially and left her feeling helpless.

To make sure the financial shock of cancer doesn't turn into a crisis, we identify and help people claim benefits they're entitled to, provide free financial guidance and give one-off grants.

Christina, diagnosed with breast cancer in 2018

MOHAMMAD'S STORY

'When I was diagnosed with cancer it didn't hit me until a few weeks later. I needed to talk to someone, so I called Macmillan and cried, and they put me at ease and helped me, being very supportive.'

Mohammad, diagnosed with prostate cancer in 2014

DAVID'S STORY

'We decided to leave something to Macmillan in our will as we know first-hand what a difference Macmillan's support can make. They were able to help me; but they also need to be able to help people living with cancer in the future as well.'

David, diagnosed with throat cancer in 2008

THE DIFFERENCE WE MADE

365 DAYS

We ran the Macmillan Support Line every single day of 2019 for the first time ever, to be there when people needed us most Today, there are around 3 million people living with cancer in the UK. Hundreds of thousands more are diagnosed every year. We are here to support everyone living with cancer to find their best way through.

£229 MILLION

raised by our super supporters

£180.8 MILLION

spent on services for people living with cancer

MORE THAN 20,000 CAMPAIGNERS

involved in influencing change for the better

1,900,000 PEOPLE

received personal, high impact support from one or more of our Macmillan professionals or services

8,300,000 PEOPLE

supported by Macmillan in total, either through our high impact support or lighter touch support such as our website or cancer information

Thanks to our supporters, professionals, partners, volunteers and employees for all that you have done to give people with cancer the support they need and for the difference we will make together in the future.

We're here to help everyone with cancer live life as fully as they can, providing physical,
financial and emotional support.

So whatever cancer throws your way, we're right there with you.
