Imagine being me

Giving treatment seems too difficult? Think again

Patient

Think about where we are

Give me the information that I need, in the way that I need it

Listen to me

Find out who and what matters to me

Work with others who are in my life

Remember to contact your learning disability liaison nurse or community learning disability team for support.

For more information please visit enable.org.uk and search for Macmillan.