

CANCER IN ARDS GP FEDERATION

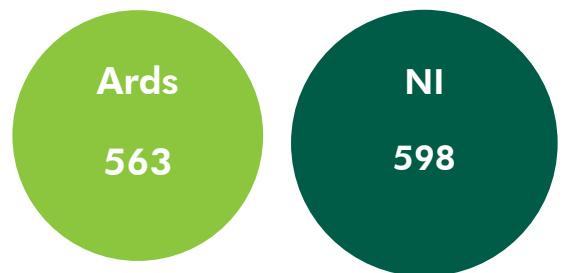

Between 2011 and 2015, 28% of breast cancer cases in the Ards GP Federation were screen detected (23% in all NI).

Cancer is less common in Ards GP Federation than in all Northern Ireland.

Average cases 2011-15:

397 New cancers in Ards

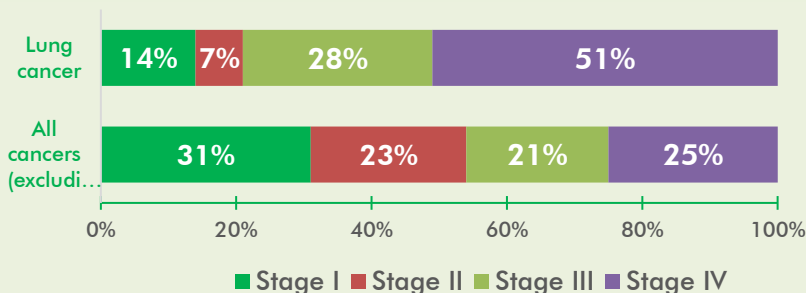

9,073 in Northern Ireland

Cancers diagnosed per 100,000 people

Late diagnosis is much more likely for lung cancer than other cancers.

Known stage at diagnosis for cancers in Ards GPF (2011-15)

Almost two-thirds of lung cancer cases (63%) in the Ards GP Federation were diagnosed in people aged 70 years and over.

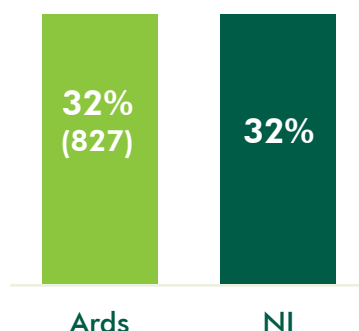

This is higher than the rate for all Northern Ireland (58%).

2,620 people living with cancer up to 23 years at end of 2015 (58,586 NI).

WE ARE MACMILLAN.
CANCER SUPPORT

Proportion at 1-5 years since diagnosis

23-year prevalence by age (Ards GPF outer ring, NI inner)

- <55 years
- 55-64 years
- 65-74 years
- 75-84 years
- 85+ years

