Living with cancer in Glasgow?

The Improving the Cancer Journey service is here for you.
Cancer doesn’t just affect your physical wellbeing, it can impact on every aspect of your life and the lives of those around you. But knowing where to turn for support isn’t always easy.

If you are living in Glasgow and have been affected by cancer, Macmillan’s Improving the Cancer Journey service is here to help. From having someone to talk to about how you feel, to help with money and housing worries or help at home.

Get in touch with us and a member of our team will meet you to find out what kind of help you need. We will be able to give you details of the organisations who can help you, or contact them on your behalf.

We also provide support for family members and carers.

To find out more about how we can help, call us on 0141 287 7077.
To find out more about how we can help, call us on 0141 287 7077.

If you’ve recently been diagnosed with cancer you might already have received a letter from us. Don’t worry if you did and decided not to get in touch at the time – if you want to find out how we can help now, just give us a call.