

CANCER IN LISBURN GP FEDERATION

- This area has the highest incidence of oesophageal cancer of all GPFs.
- More than 1 in 3 prostate cancers (36%) in this area were diagnosed in people of working age (29% in all NI).

Cancer is less common in Lisburn GPF than in all of Northern Ireland.

Average cases 2011-15:

398 Lisburn GPF

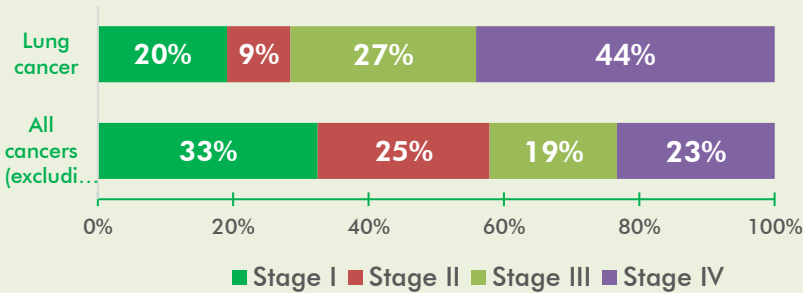

9,073 Northern Ireland

Cancers diagnosed per 100,000 people

Late diagnosis is much more likely for lung cancer than other cancers.

Known stage at diagnosis for cancers in Lisburn GPF (2011-15)

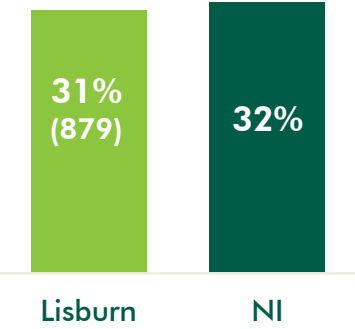

The proportion of lung cancer cases diagnosed at Stage IV in Lisburn GP Federation (44%) is significantly lower than across all of Northern Ireland (50%).

2,813 people living with cancer up to 23 years at end of 2015 (58,586 NI).

WE ARE MACMILLAN.
CANCER SUPPORT

Proportion at 1-5 years since diagnosis

23-year prevalence by age (Lisburn GPF outer ring, NI inner)

