

HOW LONGEST DAY GOLFERS CHANGE LIVES

£9,682

could pay for one of our Macmillan Mobile Cancer Information and Support Services for one week.

£6,158

could support our welfare rights advisers run the welfare rights element of our phone service for 1 day.

£4,659

could pay for a Macmillan nurse for 1 month.

£2,485

could pay for a Macmillan Support Worker for 1 month.

£417

could help run a large Macmillan Information and Support Centre for 1 day.

LONGEST DAY
GOLF CHALLENGE

MACMILLAN
CANCER SUPPORT

HOW PAST LONGEST DAY GOLFERS HAVE HELPED

Because of people like our golfing heroes, we can be here to support people when they need us most. Through our Macmillan professionals and services we provided physical, financial and emotional support to:

1.9 MILLION PEOPLE IN 2018

-  Macmillan nurses
880,258 people
-  Macmillan allied health professionals
228,921 people
-  Face-to-face Macmillan benefits advisers
140,982 people
-  Cancer information and support services
300,130 people
-  Support line services
102,205 people
-  Mobile information and support services
261,956 people

This rises to a total of 6.7 million if we also include people who used our information resources and wide range of online support.

Online support
5,200,000

Information resources
4,700,000

Reach of some specific services in 2018 shown above

The changing cancer story

The need for support to help people live with, rather than die from, cancer is increasing. So we need to raise more money to enable us to continue providing help when it's needed most.

