Make every £1 worth 25p more at no extra cost to you. It's just a little box to tick, but Gift Aid makes a huge difference when it comes to how much money we can raise to support people affected by cancer.

Your Gift Aid declaration: If I have ticked the box headed 'Gift Aid', I can confirm that I am a UK Income or Capital Gains taxpayer. I have read this statement and want Macmillan Cancer Support to reclaim tax on the donations detailed on this form, given on the date shown. I understand that if I pay less Income Tax/or Capital Gains tax in the current tax year than the amount of Gift Aid claimed on all of my donations it is my responsibility to pay any difference. I understand the charity will reclaim 25p of tax on every £1 that I have given.

72 holes. 4 rounds. 1,000 reasons why.

Over 1,000 people are diagnosed with cancer every day. Macmillan wants to help them all, providing the physical, financial and emotional help they need from day one. Here are some of the figures from last year:

Macmillan Support Line helped almost 103,000 people affected by cancer.

We invested over £29 million to fund over 350 new roles for cancer professionals.

2.4 million people affected by cancer used our services

2,744 healthcare professionals attended virtual classroom events on our learning hub

When you're affected by cancer, having the right kind of information and support at the right time is essential. That's what Macmillan provides. We offer up-to-date cancer information to help people make informed choices about their treatment and care, and to take away some of the fear. We offer practical advice and solutions for the everyday problems that can arise from living with cancer. We also offer vital emotional support – somewhere to turn when people affected by cancer need to chat or share their experiences. This year, we also need to do what it takes to help people with cancer who are hardest hit by the cost-of-living crisis.

Please give what you can, to help Macmillan support more people with cancer. To donate online or find out more, go to our team page: longestdaygolf.macmillan.org.uk
