

Macmillan Cancer Support Terms & Conditions Skydiving

Thank you for choosing to support Macmillan Cancer Support by taking part in a sponsored Skydive.

Please note:

It is important that you take time to carefully read the note below and make sure you understand it and the potential risks to you before proceeding to take part in a high-risk fundraising event such as skydive. By taking part in a sponsored skydive on behalf of Macmillan Cancer Support I understand and agree that:

- I am responsible for selecting my own provider to organise my skydive. Macmillan Cancer Support is not involved in the set up or running of the event which is solely the responsibility of the event organisers.
- It is my responsibility to ensure that I am sufficiently fit to take part in this event and if I am in any doubt about this, I will seek advice from my own General Practitioner.
- Macmillan's insurance will not cover me for participating in this event and Macmillan cannot arrange insurance for me.

NB- We recommend that you look at the insurance provided by the event organisers and consider carefully whether this is suitable for your personal circumstances in the event of you suffering personal injury including death. The insurance cover provided by parachuting organisers may only cover you for any damage or injury you may cause to third parties or their property and may not cover you for personal injury or damage to your own property. You may also wish to contact your personal or household insurer or your insurance broker to discuss suitable cover.

- I take part in this event at my own risk and understand the nature of the activity and the risks involved including injury and damage to property.
- To the fullest extent permitted by law, Macmillan does not accept responsibility for any liability, loss, death, injury, damage or claim which may arise as a result of my participation in this event, whether in relation to injury or loss to myself or to any other person.
- This letter relates solely to my personal participation in the event. Anyone else taking part must receive their own letter.
- This letter is only for parachuting events being organised by professional parachuting events companies. It is not to be used for any kind of self-organised events.
- I am solely responsible for paying my own costs in connection with this event. *
- I must be aged 18 or over at the time of the jump.
