

Macmillan Run, Regent's Park - Sunday 11 June 2017 Regents Park, London

Conditions of Entry

1. By entering the Macmillan Run you agree to abide by the Conditions of Entry and all instructions given to you by the organisers and officials of Macmillan Cancer Support ('we' and or 'Macmillan Cancer Support').
2. You understand that it is your responsibility to read these terms and conditions.
3. Your race number is for you only, you are not permitted to swap numbers or give away your place.
4. Your entry fee (£20) is non-refundable and is required to cover the cost of your entry.
5. You acknowledge that Macmillan Cancer Support may incur costs as a result of you joining Team Macmillan (e.g. cost of producing and sending fundraising pack/technical kit) for this challenge. The objective is to raise as much sponsorship as possible.
6. You understand that this is a fundraising event and you pledge to raise as much sponsorship as possible for Macmillan Cancer Support. This should be received by Macmillan Cancer Support within one month of the Challenge and all funds raised must be payable to Macmillan Cancer Support in £ sterling.
7. Entrants for the 10K must be 15 years of age or older and 5K must be 11 years of age or older by 11 June 2017, proof of age may be required.
 - a. Entrants under 18 will be required to ask their parental/legal guardian to sign a consent form which will be included in their welcome pack or posted separately by Macmillan Cancer Support to the address supplied upon registration and the parent or legal guardian will be responsible for arranging insurance for any participants under the age of 18.
 - b. For any young person aged 11 or under, a parent or guardian understands the young person will need to take part within arms length of a responsible adult parent or guardian, as per the consent form.
8. You understand that this run will be taking part in a public park and the route will not be fenced off to the public in Regent's Park, London on Sunday 11 June 2017.
9. If you are in any doubt over the whether your fitness level is sufficient for this event, advice should be sought from a GP in advance. If you have suffered or are suffering from any medical condition (for example a heart condition, epilepsy) which may impair your ability to participate, advice should be sought from your GP before you register.

Macmillan Cancer Support, its employees and volunteers (collectively known as 'Macmillan') is not responsible for any personal injury, death, loss, claim or damage suffered by you as a result of them taking part in the run, unless Macmillan has caused the injury, death, loss or damage as a result of its negligence.

You understand that whilst all reasonable precautions have been taken to ensure the safety of the run, there is a small element of risk involved in any activity and you will be responsible for arranging insurance if necessary.
10. You understand that Macmillan cannot be responsible for the supervision of any participants at the event or travelling to and from the event. All participants taking part are free to come and go as they please.
11. For your safety: do not bring pets or other animals into the park. Only participants running, jogging or walking will be allowed on the route. Roller-skates, wheelbarrows or other objects with wheels or that are motorised are strictly prohibited.
12. All participants, supporters and spectators, including friends and families who choose to attend the event confirm that they are happy for their names, video footage, photographs taken of them during the event to be used to publicise the event by Macmillan Cancer Support and its trading companies (Macmillan Cancer

Support Trading Ltd and Macmillan Cancer Support Sales Ltd) for commercial and fundraising purposes including, but not limited to marketing material, television broadcasts, social media, advertising, publications, and other documents or mediums that may be made available to the public. Photographs of children will not be used in this manner without express written consent; unless the images are incidental, for example, children's images at the starting line. For further information about how we collect and use personal data, please refer to our Privacy Policy

13. You should not photograph or film any children without first obtaining consent from the legal guardian – this is strictly prohibited.
14. Macmillan Cancer Support will use your personal information to:
 - a. organise your participation in the event; and
 - b. where you have agreed during the registration process to be contacted about how you can donate to us and how you can get involved in our activities including fundraising.
 - c. We will keep your details on our database so we can provide you with the best possible support every time you contact us.

We do not sell or swap your details with any third parties, but we may share with third parties involved in the organisation of the event and Macmillan's subsidiaries. We may need to pass your details to service companies authorised to act on our behalf.

15. Should you, for whatever reason, not take your place or in the event of a cancellation, all sponsorship forms and monies collected should be forwarded to Macmillan or returned to your sponsors.
16. Macmillan Cancer Support would like to contact you (including by telephone) about our fundraising, campaigning and services for people affected by cancer. If you would prefer us not to use your details in this way please write to Macmillan Cancer Support, 89 Albert Embankment, London, SE1 7UQ, email on contact@macmillan.org.uk or telephone us on 0300 1000 200.
17. Any complaints should be communicated to the Macmillan representative on the challenge, or, if that is not possible, then in writing to the Macmillan Cancer Support office as soon as possible after the event.
